

THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1886.

COLONEL HART GIBSON is a candidate for the Senate in Fayette.

The venerable David Moriwether is again a candidate for the Legislature in Jefferson.

Trouble between the locomotive engineers and the Missouri Pacific railroad has been amicably arranged.

CAPTAIN A. J. Goss, of Cloverport, has been recommended by the Attorney General for United States Marshal of Kentucky.

Sevax dollars is the railroad rate this week from Cincinnati to New York and it is predicted by railroad men that by next Saturday it will be $1.

Hon. JACOB THOMPSON, Secretary of the Interior under President Buchanan, died Monday afternoon at his residence in Memphis. He was in his seventy-fifth year.

SENATOR LAMAR has decided to appoint a commission to investigate the workings of the Interior Department with a view to re-organizing and re-arranging the work and force.

REV. H. W. BRECHER said to a reporter of the Birmingham Age, that he was in favor of a Southern man for President in 1888, and spoke of Secretary Lamar as the man for the honor.

It is said that Hon. George H. Pendleton had his choice of the Foreign Missions and chose Berlin. He completed his education in Germany and speaks the language of that country fluently.

The Democrats of Cincinnati have nominated George Gerke, for Mayor; J. M. Dawson, for Solicitor; George Herndon, for Treasurer, and Michael Ryan, for member of the Board of Public Works.

The Lexington Transcript says: There is no truth in the report that several companies of the State Guards had been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for active service, presumably to go to Kewan or Carter Counties.

The following is given for what it is worth: "Republicans in Congress expect a division of their opponents growing out of the failure to turn the reins out," in which case they promise to come to the support of the President. This is the policy of Mr. Blaine."

The work of reform goes on. Secretary Manning has sent a circular letter to heads of bureaus and chiefs of divisions in the Treasury department, requesting them to report in writing as soon as practicable, whether, in their opinion, the force employed in the respective offices can be reduced, and if so, in what way without detriment to the public service.

He Took the Wrong Side.

(From the Detroit Free Press.)
At one of the theatres the other evening a man who had it between his wife and daughter led it to the stage and called for a trip down stairs. When he returned he found a vacant seat two rows back between two women, and dropped into it with the remark: "I was a M. Manning when I went out. It's none of your business what other women wear. Because some one else was a fool of her self by wearing cotton stockings in the winter it doesn't follow that you must do the same." "Sir!" came from both sides of him at once, and the way he looked that seat made the noise his boots red hot.

Ladies of the Cabinet.

(From a Washington Letter.)
Mrs. Manning is so far the queen bee in the new Cabinet. She is a bride, although not a very young woman and brought to Mr. Manning some wealth and a social position. She is tall, with a slender, graceful figure, has good features, light brown hair and great animation and grace of manner. As a thorough society woman, she is well equaled to the demands of her position. Mrs. Manning will soon be the best known and most popular of the new cabinet. Mrs. Villis resided with Mrs. Manning at the Arlington yesterday, and this quiet, graceful little woman, who made the acquaintance of society last week with the guest of Mrs. Villis, was the great favor desired. Mrs. Villis goes to Wisconsin in a few days, and will not bring her children and the way she established herself in a house until fall. Mrs. Endicott, wife of the new War Secretary, was also at home at the Arlington, and the visitors found her to be a typical Massachusetts woman; a cool, clear-headed, energetic Yankee, whose blood is the blood of any of the great commonwealth. Mrs. Endicott is tall and slenderly built. Her features are clear cut and decided, and with her dark eyes she has a glow of gray hair that is very high and laid in smooth curls on the top of her head. She had a pleasant welcome and a vigorous handshake for all yesterday, and a fund of good words and good will at command. All Massachusetts gentlemen in her parlors and were gratified to tell one in asides how the Endicott family tree ran generations beyond that of the Adams family, including the "hazily Endicott," British Governor of the early colony, and known to the younger generation through the "Hill of the Cane" and "Southwick," a favorite declaration at school exercises.

SULLIVAN PLAYS BASE BALL.

The Champion Splinters a Hat into Teeth.

PHILADELPHIA, March 20.—The first base ball game of the season was played in Fairmount park. Sullivan was the pitcher. There were nine players on a side and the number of innings was not limited. The players were John L. Sullivan, Paddy Sheppard, Port Nixey, Tommy Bagney, Sullivan's friend from Ireland, Louis Hunt, John McGee, Donny Conigan and Johnny Kelly, boxers; Johnny Clark and two or three others.

The last was interrupted in the second minute after Sullivan pitched it up. The game was what is called single-handed base. When the game was engaged in Sullivan's room there were at least 500 men and boys down stairs waiting patiently to see the champion. In order to avoid a riot, Sullivan got a big covered wagon and a little sled horse. The ball players slipped out the back way and got into the wagon, but they did not get out the front, who trailed pell-mell around the rear of the hotel. When the wagon started a hundred men and boys followed. After a chase of a mile the crowd came up on a large lot. Sullivan walked quickly and coolly and executed with dumb-bells. Both he and Sullivan complain that crowd inroads into their walking.

St. Joseph's, Conn.
BATAVIA, N. Y., March 20.—Charles H. Lazard, real estate speculator, made an announcement last week ago. The village has been greatly astonished over the developments as to the manner of doing business. Lazard, many of whom were widows or young men who had placed all their savings in Lazard's hands. Lazard walked quickly and coolly and executed with dumb-bells. Both he and Sullivan complain that crowd inroads into their walking.

BUFFALO, March 20.—It has just been learned that John O'Hara, who was arrested at Utica on Friday to one year in the penitentiary for aiding in smuggling Latham Canada, has escaped to Canada. O'Hara was on the river bank and while he was in the boat, a United States marshal, who was taking him to prison, requested and obtained leave to visit his family. While the officer's attention was occupied by the prisoner's weeping friends O'Hara jumped through a window of a side room and into his boat and escaped. His escape is an extraordinary one, inasmuch as he is a prisoner.

THE CONDENSER.

Fresh, Fitty, New Items Boiled Down for the Hurried Reader.
Gen. Graham has postponed his attack in force upon Oman Digan until Friday.
J. W. Norris was fatally injured at Newburg, W. Va., by being struck by a freight engine.
The strike at Wellston, O., ended, the miners accepting the reduction to fifty cents per ton.
The grocery house of Frank Blewing, of Bellefontaine, was closed by creditors. Liabilities and assets not known.
Mr. O'Malley, living near Barnesville, O., had several dogs of the sheep killed and his stock badly injured by dogs.
Frank Littlefield, son of a prominent merchant, was shot in the head and probably fatally wounded by a farmer named Norris, near Woodstock, N. Y.

M. Esterberg, a peddler, of Zanesville, O., was shot in the head and probably fatally wounded by a farmer named Norris, near Woodstock, N. Y.
T. A. B. Jones, sister of Lawrence county, O., was married at Columbus to Anna Almus Struble, daughter of Col. John M. Strode, of that city.
Baron Ferdinand Rothschild gave a breakfast to several hundred poor and unemployed people. He made a speech, advising emigration to Canada.

William Purdy, a farmer living in Rogers township, Ashland county, was fatally injured in a fight with John Powers near London, Ohio.
Dr. Athos D. Flagg, of Vincennes, Ind., was applied for a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Ariane Flagg, alleging abandonment and incompatibility of temper.

Homer Thompson, postmaster of Hartford, O., died aged seventy-four. He was a cousin of old John Brown, and one of the earliest and bravest men of the rebellion.
The trial of James D. Allison, alleged horse thief, terminated at Coshocton, Ind., the jury failing to agree, standing adjourned for the second session.
At Warren, O., a company of prominent citizens decided to build a $50,000 opera house. Ex-Senator Perkins laid the project by for the time being.

Another death from measles occurred at Waterloo, N. S. Elizabeth Taylor, this makes the fourth death from this disease in the town of Waterloo in the last few weeks.
A. C. Wood, manager of the Frankfort (Ky.) opera-house, was arrested charged by a girl with an attempted rape, and held over for trial, before the county court next Saturday.

A writ of error was granted by Judge Graham at Chicago in the case of Markin and O'Malley, convicted election frauds, but in time to save them from the punishment.

WASH OF WAR WAVES.

MANITO AND SALVADOR MENACED
BY THE REBEL'S MARCH.

Rebels Renegades Kampant with Legions:
In Pursuit—Indians, Insurgents and Half-Breeds—Hunting Barrios and the Allies.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 26.—Nothing is talked of here save the rebellion, and as reports come in the excitement increases. Intelligence has just been received of an attack by the rebels upon a detachment of mounted police which was proceeding to the relief of Fort Carlton. Fifteen of the police were killed and others wounded. Another report in circulation is to the effect that Riel has been shot and the rebels have captured and imprisoned forty whites, and have taken possession of more stores. Four Indian chiefs and their bands have joined the thousands who now number over a thousand hardy men, all well armed.

A dispatch from Edmonton to the Hudson Bay company says 400 half-breeds are located in the vicinity, holding a secret meeting and organizing for action.

The insurgents have seized several private stores and are menacing Hudson Bay trading posts. Gen. Middleton, commander-in-chief of the Canadian militia, will arrive Thursday and take command of the expedition against the rebels. The Ninetieth battalion and fifth battery and Middleton will follow by a special train and overtake them. The Winnipeg detachment of mounted police have left for the scene. The commissary department is busy purchasing horses, sleighs, wagons, and other supplies.

It is proposed to break the Ninetieth regiment into three divisions and forward them from different points along the railway. New arrivals from Prince Albert say the half-breeds have been preparing all winter for the uprising, and are well provided with supplies, ammunition, etc. Military circles are very busy. Recruits are being received for both corps, as a full complement is wanted. Two hundred men have enlisted and awaiting orders are drilling. The men are being supplied with accoutrements and ammunition. The troops have been disbanded for a few hours, but buglers are galloping all over the city summoning men to arms in order that they may start for the seat of the disturbance at once.

Belligerent Barrios.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—While Barrios is advancing on Salvador at the head of an army of 15,000 men, President Zaldívar of Salvador, was at Santa Ana on the Guatemalan frontier Monday, with 10,000 men, ready to meet the onset of Barrios. At the same time General Frederico Foranader, brother of the late President of Costa Rica, entered Nicaraguan territory at the head of a force which will join the Nicaraguan army and march into Salvador to aid in resisting and beating back Barrios.

Mexico has in the meantime withdrawn her legation from Guatemala, and it is believed here will give the Guatemalan minister in Mexico his passports within the next few days.

The official gazette of Costa Rica received news reports that on the 7th of March an assembly of notables, convoked by the president, unanimously resolved to resist by all the means of the country the desperate attempt of Barrios.

HE PASSED IN HIS SLEEP.

But Failed to Answer the Questions in His Waiting Moments.

HONOLULU, T. H., March 26.—In attendance at the sessions of the Central Methodist conference held here during the past week was a young itinerant theologian, a person in preparation to undergo the final examination in a progressive series required to be passed before he could complete his preparation for a full license as a full-fledged divine. He had already passed five of these examinations successfully, but was greatly concerned as to the sixth.

He rose and asked if it has sleep or not during the conference, and accordingly the young theologian was obliged to accept a bed room in a boarding house, already occupied by three or four other persons, among whom were a young lawyer and a young Methodist minister of full degree. Returning together the other night from a late session of the conference, the minister and lawyer were named to hear the exhortation and to answer imaginary questions pertaining to the coming examination. They instantly grasped the situation, whereupon the divine gave instructions to conduct the mock examination. He suggested the formal questions to the lawyer, who in turn propounded them in a very severe manner to the student.

In this way they went through the whole examination required by the church organization, the student answering in his sleep all the questions directly. The lawyer told him, however, that he had made lots of mistakes and would have to be put back another year. At this the student showed much distress, protesting against such a decision, and begging to be allowed another trial. The three were repeated for several nights until the student went before the official examining board. But here, owing probably to his anxious state of mind, although he had previously answered all the questions correctly, he utterly failed to pass, and was put back another year.

The Sara Sola Assassination.

TAMPA, Fla., March 26.—The trial of Alfred B. Bidwell, formerly of Buffalo, N. Y., charged with a murder committed in conjunction with others, known as the "Sara Sola assassination society," was begun at Pine Level, the county seat of Manatee county. The most intense interest is shown in the proceedings, and the lives of the prisoners have repeatedly been in jeopardy. The grand jury has indicted Bidwell and eight others for murder in the first degree. The case was continued to the next term of court.

Perished in the Flames.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 26.—Geo. Green, color 1, of Georgetown county, was awakened by smoke. Discovering that his house was on fire he seized one of his children and dropped it out of a window. He then awoke his wife and three children and attempted to get them out. The fire, however, had made such headway and the smoke was so dense that he could not reach them and barely escaped with his life. The wife of Green and three children were burned to death and the house reduced to ashes.
